Paolo Pellegrin receives the Dr. Erich Salomon Prize 2013 from the German Photographic Association (DGPh)

The Italian photographer Paolo Pellegrin has been awarded the Dr. Erich Salomon Prize from the German Photographic Association (DGPh). The award ceremony will take place on October 12, 2013 in the Raum für Fotografie Zephyr, Mannheim. Here, Pellegrin's latest works will be exhibited as the 5th installation of the project series "Deutschlandreise", a collaboration between the agencies Magnum and Focus in co-operation with the Foto-Festival Mannheim_Ludwigshafen_Heidelberg and the ZEITmagazin.

The prize, which is awarded in honour of Dr. Erich Salomon, the great photographer of the Weimar Republic, is presented each year since 1971 for "exemplary use of photography in journalism".

Paolo Pellegrin was born in Rome in 1964. He is one of the world's most prolific and most dedicated photojournalists, who, in the last 25 years, has devoted himself to the photographic documentation of the Conditio Humana.

Pellegrin is a member of Magnum and has received numerous awards, including ten World Press Photo Awards. His photographs have been published in almost all leading publications throughout the world. During his long-standing co-operation with The New York Times Magazine, more than ten cover stories have appeared in the prestigious magazine.
